

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

New London County

LISBON

Guests from South Pasadena Entertained—Marjorie Burnham, M. D., of Ohio, in Town.

Miss Irene Enquist with her brother Roosevelt have returned to Boston after a visit with their aunt, Mrs. Olof Nelson.

Mrs. Bliven of Exeter, R. I., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Read over Sunday.

Miss Vesta Kendall and Mrs. Benjamin Brown spent Sunday in New London.

Guests from the Golden State.

Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Crist of South Pasadena, Cal., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hyde the first of the week.

Mrs. Cornell, her son Arthur, and daughters, Gladys and Dorothy of New York are at Mrs. G. A. Kennedy's.

Miss Beatrice Read returned Saturday after a visit of several weeks with her grandmother in Exeter, R. I.

J. Herbert Irons of Providence and Miss Lottie Moll of Versailles were at O. H. Irons' over Sunday.

Mrs. Mary J. Foote of Wilton was a recent visitor at the home of her son, W. S. Foote.

Marjorie Burnham, M.D., of Ohio, who has been taking a post graduate course of medicine in New York, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Phoebe Brown.

Nellie S. Carpenter intends passing most of her vacation in Saybrook, New Haven, Marthas Vineyard and, Wellesley.

FITCHVILLE

Lawn Party Followed by Dance in the Hall—Holy Name Field Day Today.

Miss Teresa McManus gave a lawn party Tuesday evening in honor of her guests, Misses Abbie and Nettie Flanagan of Astoria, N. Y. The lawn was prettily decorated with Chinese lanterns. Refreshments were served. There was dancing in the hall. Brady's orchestra furnished music. Prof. Nostrand prompted.

Holy Name Field Day.

All is in readiness for the first Holy Name field day of the county to be held in this village this (Saturday) afternoon and evening. Arrangements have been made for a game of ball between the Greenville H. N. S. and the local team. The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock. After the ball game there will be several contests near Palmer hall.

Thieving Doe Shot.

Elizabeth Abell shot a handsome doe that was destroying her crops. He immediately notified the game warden, who said Mr. Abell was justified in killing the deer.

Misses Florence and Alice Phillips are spending a few days at Lord's Point.

John P. Fields is visiting his brother, Jeremiah Fields, of Boston.

Peter Gribbin is spending two weeks vacation at Block Island.

Miss May Eastland has returned from a visit with friends in Maine.

WATERFORD

Visitors from Oklahoma City—General News.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Beebe and daughter Elizabeth are spending a few days with Mr. Beebe's sister, Mrs. Mary A. Littlefield.

Mrs. Lucy Rainard of New London has returned home after a visit with friends at Jordan.

Mrs. Rebecca Cann of New London has returned home after a visit at Mrs. H. Willis Manwaring's.

Frank Collins of Oklahoma City made a short stay at Buena Vista, calling upon Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Williams last Thursday.

Frederick Myers, formerly of Norwich, but later of Oklahoma City, is at Mrs. Nancy Williams', Ocean View.

Allen Young was a caller Wednesday at Poughonoc.

Mrs. Earl Damon has returned home after a short visit at her father's, William Green, who is seriously ill.

A handsome monument is being erected to Mrs. Christopher G. Newbury.

Miss Dora Beckwith of Oswego is home after a visit at Mr. and Mrs. Park B. Smith's at Packard.

Mr. and Mrs. Phyllis Harwood of New London have taken up their abode at Jordan, taking the Griswold Chapin place.

LEONARD BRIDGE

The families of F. O. Brown, F. J. Brown and E. H. McCall spent Tuesday at Ocean beach.

Miss Mary Mills of Norwich is visiting her brother, George A. Mills.

Miss Gertrude Out of Norwich is visiting Miss F. Spaulding.

Mrs. Maria Haas is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Hughes of Providence.

Mrs. Simon Valinsky of Brooklyn, N. Y., is spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Valinsky.

Dorothy Stimpson, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stimpson, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, Willimantic, Monday. She has typhoid fever.

Mrs. George A. Mills is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clifford King of Lebanon.

Mr. Porter and family of South Manchester and the family of Mr. Kawolski of Hartford are at the cottage on the island in Williams pond (Exeter).

Mrs. Harriet Robinson of Columbia and Clifford Robinson of Hebron were calling on local relatives Tuesday.

PRESTON

The Congregational Sunday school held its picnic at Kitemaug last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace I. Palmer and daughter, Ethel, of Hartford, are visiting in this place.

Ernest Maine, who is employed in Hartford, is spending his vacation at his home in Preston City.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan H. Hall spent Wednesday in Lyme.

Miss Florence Kennedy is visiting friends in Greenville.

Preston grange, No. 114, held its annual picnic at Ocean Beach Thursday. About 15 members and friends enjoyed the trip.

Mrs. H. H. Palmer has returned after a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Munn of Norwich.

PENDLETON HILL

Local Patient at Backus Hospital.

Miss Susan Cooks is home after two weeks' visit with Miss Mary Brown of Westerly.

Miss Sarah T. Palmer has returned after a week's visit in Montclair, N. J., and Lancaster, Pa.

Mrs. Charles Brown of Clark's Falls spent Tuesday with her daughter, Mrs. Sheffield Brown.

Miss Mary Chapman is visiting in Norwich and Jewett City.

Clifford and Irving Thompson were in Norwich Saturday to see Clark Coon who is in Backus hospital.

Charles H. Babcock of Jewett City is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Jennie J. Thompson.

Mrs. Thomas Ahern and two sons are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Amos Palmer.

LIBERTY HILL

Annual Taylor Picnic—Summer Guests Entertained.

Van N. Verplanck and Lucius Stanley of South Manchester were weekend visitors at Mrs. E. A. Noyes'.

Rev. Mr. Campbell, pastor of the First Congregational church was a caller in this place Monday.

Mrs. Fred Weaver and children Morris and Mertie of Old Lyme were guests of Mrs. G. B. Dimon over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodrich of Hartford are spending a week of their vacation with Mr. Goodrich's aunts, Misses Flora and Abbie Goodrich.

The annual Taylor picnic was held last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Achler.

Miss May Chappell of Lake Pond is visiting her brothers, Gordon and Griswold Chappell.

The mercury each morning since Sunday, including Sunday has stood 49 and 50.

MOHEGAN

William Hascott Going West To Visit Brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Dolbear were in New London the first of the week.

Mrs. Howard and son of New York are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter.

Donald Meech who has been home for a few days has returned to Boston.

William Hascott is to start for the west in a few days to visit his brother, Theodore Hascott.

Miss Flint of Norwich called on friends in this place last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fowler entertained friends from Norwich and New London Sunday.

Mrs. Harriet W. Quidegan of New London were the guests of Mrs. E. Fowler Friday.

BOZRAH

Interesting Exhibit at Grange Meeting—New Pastor Arrives.

Clarence Lathrop and family, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar, and Henry Clark made a trip to Natick this week, after a week's vacation.

The grange held a meeting Wednesday evening with a good attendance. There was an exhibit of various articles made by the patrons of the grange. Cake and ice cream were served.

Rev. J. C. Young has moved from Franklin to the Bozrah Center parsonage. He began his labors here last Sunday.

Dr. Nathan Johnson and George Brush were callers on Edwin E. Lathrop Wednesday.

Miss Olive Bishop of Yantic is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. O. A. Bishop.

FRANKLIN

Congregational Sunday School to Have an Outing to Watch Hill.

The Sunday school of the Franklin Congregational church will go to Watch Hill, Wednesday, Aug. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Geer of Willimantic were callers at Deacon L. A. Robinson's on Sunday.

Mrs. George Geer of Plain Hill was the guest of Stephen Parker on Tuesday.

Edwin Douglas of Willimantic was a recent visitor in town.

Mrs. Hermon A. Gager and Miss Daisy Parker spent Thursday on Plain Hill.

S. N. Hyde, Miss Hyde and L. A. Robinson attended the funeral of Mrs. Julia Grant in Willimantic, Thursday.

Mrs. Charles H. Giddings, Alice Giddings and Henry Giddings were in Guilfordville Thursday.

NORTH FRANKLIN

Mrs. Baldwin of Norwich spent Monday with her mother, Mrs. Giles Harrington.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Rockwood and children and Fred H. Race, Jr., attended the Colchester-Lebanon ball game at Colchester Saturday.

Miss Ruth Potter and Ruby Penion of Norwich Town are visiting at Mrs. Estella Lathrop's.

Miss Ethel Browning spent Sunday at Block Island.

Reuben Manning and Henry Shippee are spending several days at Woodstock.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Webster and daughter, Faith, were Sunday visitors at Mrs. Emma Warner's.

Mrs. Reuben Manning and children, Arnold and Mildred, are spending a week in Willimantic.

Miss Anna Park is the guest of Miss Dodge of Norwich.

CLARK'S FALLS

George Yaran of New York state, who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Albert Kuehn, returned home Tuesday.

Oscar Perry has been the guest of relatives in Providence.

Miss Sarah Palmer is the guest of her uncle, Horace Palmer, and family. She has just returned from England, where she had a fine time.

LAUREL GLEN

William Main and helpers are repairing the roads.

Priestella and Newell Presby have been visiting their cousin, Fona Hale.

Mrs. Perkins of Bellingham is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Main.

Dwight Main and family attended the funeral of Mrs. George Maxson of Westerly Friday. Mrs. Maxson was a sister of Mrs. Main.

Windham County

ABINGTON

Funeral of Mrs. George Allen—Personal.

Mrs. Phoebe Sharpe and daughters, Misses May and Virginia, left Saturday, July 6th, for an outing at Woodmont Beach.

Mrs. Leroy Pearl of Brooklyn and Miss Clara Denison of North Windham are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Briggs.

Mrs. Julia Clapp of Pomfret Landing returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Henry LaForte and sons, Eleonor and Theodora, returned Sunday from their vacation, spent in Worcester and at Nantasket Beach.

The Congregational Sunday school held its annual picnic at Wildwood park Thursday.

Mrs. George Allen, who has been in poor health for several years, died Saturday afternoon. The funeral, which was private, was held at her house at 2 o'clock on Monday. Burial was in Abington cemetery. The deceased leaves her husband and two daughters.

PLAINFIELD

Rev. Mr. Higgins of Packerville, Me., and Mrs. Maud Barber and Miss Sarah Spalding, and other friends here last week Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Wm. H. Devolve was ill for a few days the past week.

Miss Beatrice Gaudet of Volantown has been visiting Miss Henrietta Burpee and other friends here the past week.

The Stead family of New York City are at their summer home here.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

George Harrington Finishes Four Years' Service in the Navy—Thomas Wakely Has Right Eye Removed.

Mrs. Henry Northrup is visiting relatives in Providence.

Warren Hopkins of Providence spent Sunday at Alfred T. Hill's.

Michael Connelly has been visiting Pascoag relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Frieze have returned from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Moffitt attended the funeral of Frank Herrick in Canterbury Tuesday.

Misses Harriet and Elsie Frieze have returned from Norwich, where they have been visiting their grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Beece Smith have returned from New London, where they have been spending a week with relatives.

Frank Edgerton has an injured foot, caused by dropping a beam on it at the Central Worsted company mill.

Mr. Carpenter of Mechanicville has moved his family to the Simmons house on Main street.

Gone to Boston.

Frank Healey, who has finished his duties as telegraph operator at the railroad station, has gone to Boston.

Miss Florence Hope has returned after spending a few days at her home in Versailles.

Albert Tillinghast was at Fisher's Island Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clarke have returned from Groton.

Miss Beatrice Dean, who has been spending a week at Groton, has returned home.

Rev. Henry C. Crane, formerly pastor of the church here, was a Sunday visitor.

Rev. C. A. Northrup of Norwich preached at the church here Sunday.

Miss Lucy Broadhead was at Rocky Point Tuesday.

Avery Metcalf has returned home much improved in health.

Mrs. William Simmons was at Rocky Point Tuesday.

Alexander Mott has returned from a month's stay at Long Island.

Rev. Hawthorne Benedict of New Haven is visiting his mother, Mrs. George Benedict.

Complete Service in the Navy.

George Harrington has finished his four years' service in the United States navy and has returned to the home of his brother, Frank Harrington.

Mrs. Julia Newton and Mrs. E. Hoxie Lillibridge spent Tuesday at Narragansett Pier.

George D. Seguin is spending his vacation at Ernest Scott's in Providence.

Frank Pence has returned from the Day Kimball hospital, where he underwent a successful operation for appendicitis.

Had Eye Removed.

Thomas Wakely has returned from St. Joseph's hospital in Providence, where he has been several weeks on account of an accident. His right eye was removed Thursday to save the sight of the left one.

Mrs. Charles Byles, Miss Marie Byles and Elwood Byles are at Pleasant View, R. I. for a week.

Earl Byles has gone to Old Lyme for two weeks.

Mrs. Arnold B. Mathewson has been spending a few days in Boston.

CHAPLIN

Services in the Churches—Notes of Summer Visitors.

The Congregational vestry was well filled Sunday morning. The congregation included a number of summer visitors in town. The pastor, Rev. H. C. McKnight, gave a fine sermon from these words: "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever."

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mathewson of Mount Hope attended church here Sunday.

Rev. W. B. Sanford of Waterlool, Iowa, is taking Mr. Sanford's vacation and visiting at the home of his father, Charles Sanford of South Chaplin.

Rev. Mr. Sanford preached in the chapel at South Chaplin last Sunday evening and a good number were out to hear his interesting discourse based on "What shall it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Clark of Long Island are visiting relatives in town.

Robert O. Snow and family of Willimantic have been visitors at George E. Snow's.

Miss Florence I. Hunt is visiting friends in New Jersey and on Long Island.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward E. Haney of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visitors at Albert L. Church's.

On State Road Contract.

Hiram W. Twiss, road maker, is engaged on a state road contract between Phoenixville and Abington.

Adam Landeck, who has been for several months in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., has returned to town to assist his brother on the farm.

NORTH STERLING

Small Trout Will Die, as Brooks Are Drying Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Young have returned to their home in Lawrence, Mass. Mr. Young is visiting Mrs. John Nichols and children of Brookfield, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Nichols' brother, William Barber.

Charles B. Cole has been entertaining friends from Providence.

Everett Swan is home from Providence rich with malaria.

Henry Cunningham and family of New Bedford are visiting at Joseph D. Hillery's.

F. E. Plummer and H. H. Crowell took an auto trip to Westerly last Monday.

C. H. Corey made a business trip to Providence Wednesday.

The small brooks are fast drying up and many small trout will die.

Plans are being made to hold a Sunday school picnic in the grove.

Miss Selma Kler of Danielson spent Sunday with her cousins, the Misses Griffith.

Eugene L. Baker of Groton has been visiting at George C. Spooner's the past week. He made the trip with his new auto.

Mrs. Oliver Bowen of Danielson has been visiting friends here.

CANTERBURY PLAIN

Funeral of Frank Herrick, Only Son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herrick.

The funeral of Frank Herrick, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herrick, was held Tuesday afternoon at the Plains church at 2 o'clock. Prayer was offered at the home. Rev. S. B. Carter of Plainfield, formerly pastor of the Canterbury church, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart Goff, a quartette, Mr. and Mrs. Hart Goff, Mrs. Emily Bushnell of Canterbury and Oliver Neff of Hartford—sang two hymns, one being "Sometime We'll Unite." The service was a very beautiful one, among them being beautiful flowers, schoolmates, church, W. C. T. U., flat bouquet with word Grandson from Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams, pillow with Frankie from parents, basket from Mrs. Homer Barrows of Canterbury, bouquet of asters and roses, Miss Lulu Robbins of New London; sheet, Mr. Robbins of New London; pillow with Cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Moffitt of Central Village; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Porter of Hebron; sheet of asters, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dean of Moosup; bouquets, Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain of Windham, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bliven, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kinsie of Lebanon. The bearers were his uncles, Harry Dean of Moosup, Paul Porter of Hebron, Frank Stanton of Providence and Ray Bliven of Canterbury. Burial was in the Canterbury Plains cemetery.

He was in his 21st year and had spent his life in Canterbury, where he was a favorite with young and old. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved parents in the loss of their only child, after an illness of two weeks with heart trouble and meningitis.

BROOKLYN

Many at Union Sunday School Picnic—August Guests and Their Hosts.

Waldo Blake has entered the employ of the A. F. Wood company of Danielson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Blake and daughter Dorothy took a day's outing, visiting the shore resort and partaking of a shore dinner. Their daughter, Florence, who has visited Deep River friends for two weeks, returned home with them.

Mrs. Eugene Hyde of Providence, with her granddaughter, are visiting Mrs. John Hyde.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bell have had for their guests Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bell of New Britain.

H. S. Mador has been enjoying a visit from his sister, Mrs. Sweeney of Riverhead, L. I.

Mrs. Elmer Baker, a former resident, now of New York Mills, N. Y., has been visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. T. S. Marlor is entertaining Mrs. Richard Mott of New York.

Mrs. Minnie Little of East Hampton is visiting Mrs. George G. Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Williams and daughter of Pittsfield, Mass., have been guests of Mrs. John Palmer and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Copeland are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Copeland.

Mrs. Grace Spaulding of Pawtucket is visiting Mrs. Frank Hoxie.

Master Milton Gardiner of Saylesville is visiting Mr. and Mrs. N. Wolcott Witter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Spaulding and daughter of Worcester, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Spaulding.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Peilham Williams and daughter are occupying their cottage for a short time.

Mrs. E. Lewis and daughter of Providence are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Witter.

Mrs. Ralph P. Bennett is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Pine.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Spaulding of Hartford are visiting friends in town.

Union Picnic.

The Sunday schools of the Baptist and Congregational churches held a union picnic at Albert E. Webb's grove Tuesday.

Mrs. A. H. Tanner was in Norwich Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Cooper are entertaining at The Seven Maples.

Miss Carolyn Richter, Miss Wilhelmina Richter, and Mr. Aaron Cooper of Tarrytown, N. Y., Miss Mildred Cooper and Master Samuel Cooper of New Haven, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Leach and family of New York City.

Mr. William Cooper and family have returned to New London.

Lawn Party.

A lawn party is to be held by the ladies of the Episcopal church in the rectory lawn next Wednesday.

De W. C. Park has enjoyed a week's vacation, joining his wife at Hingham and returning with her Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Hugh Park of Chatham, N. Y., Mrs. Laura Chapman and Irving W. Chapman are visiting Mrs. Mary A. Havens of Natick, Conn.

DAYVILLE

New Cancelling Machine at Post Office—Postal Savings Business Increases.

Mrs. N. Lorne Greig is spending the month at Watch Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Martin are entertaining their son Charles, of Lynn, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snow of New York are visiting Mrs. Oswald Street.

Miss Mattie Learme has returned to Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore of Chicago entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bennett at their summer home in East Killingly Sunday.

Post Office Improvements.

William T. Bidwell has installed an up to date cancelling machine in the Killingly post office.

The postal savings bank connected with the office is steadily increasing in business.

Mrs. A. T. Thope arrived on Saturday to make her home here.

Mrs. Eric Johnson of Putnam spent the week-end with Miss Bernice Cogswell.

Miss Vinnie Shaw spent the week-end with her parents in Worcester.

The Misses Kelley of East Orange, N. J., are visiting at the home of Mrs. W. L. Bennett.

George Bennett and family of Providence are with Mrs. Fannie Bennett.

Mrs. R. Phillips of Putnam led the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Many Attend Picnic at Roseland Park—Motor Party.

The union Sunday school picnic was held at Roseland park Wednesday. The attendance was large, the day being ideal. A substantial lunch was served and games and boating were enjoyed.

J. F. Rivers is visiting his sister, Mrs. Walter Cobleigh, coming Tuesday from Day Kimball hospital, where he underwent an operation for internal abscess of the ear. He had a similar operation some years ago.

Mrs. J. E. Child and two children returned to Putnam Tuesday, the eldest child remaining for a longer visit.

On Long Motor Trip.

J. D. Sanger, M. B. Morse and wife, E. E. May and wife returned Sunday evening from a 200-mile automobile ride in northern Massachusetts, leaving early Saturday morning. They were guests of Ernest Rice and family in Barre over night, who accompanied them on their trip.

Miss Lois Bannister of Webster, is visiting her cousin, Miss Upham.

Mrs. G. L. Upham is visiting her sons in Dedham and Revere, Mass., leaving Tuesday.

EKONK

Mr. and Mrs. George Gallup and daughter Gladys, Miss Jeannette Gallup, and Mr. and Mrs. George Frink and family are at Quonococtaug for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stanton returned Tuesday after a visit with Rev. and Mrs. M. Joseph Twomey in Maine.

Everett Whipple of Voluntown is visiting his aunt, Mrs. B. F. Colburn.

Grace Lamere gave a very pleasing Manchester Monday to attend the Baker-Kellogg wedding.

Mrs. Ann Corey is visiting relatives and friends at Eastern Point and Groton.

George Green moved his family to Moosup last week.

Large parties go to Beach pond every day.

The grange meeting Friday evening was very interesting. The lecturers hour was open to the public and Miss Grace Green gave a very pleasing address on kindergarten work in Brooklyn, N. Y.

WINDHAM

Two Gifts for Library—Many on Vacation Trips—Guests in Town.

The library has recently received two gifts, one being a handsome bookcase, given by Samuel Chesbro of Willimantic, which has been placed in the reading room. The other is a fine large specimen of the jewel stone picked up at the intersection of the Panama canal and the Chagres river by Thomas Mann and sent by him to the library.

Mr. Mann, who has been an engineer at the canal for a number of years, has recently purchased the Halcyon farm and will return from Panama about January 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bell of Windham motored to town Saturday and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Larrabee. Miss Marian Larrabee motored with them Monday.

Chronicle of Summer Guests.

Harold S. Maine, who has been ill for a week with congestion of the lungs, is improving.

E. S. Tergason of Hartford was a recent visitor in town.

The curbing in front of the Congregational church has been reset, a much needed improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Fenton and children, of Jersey City, arrived at Mrs. J. C. Fenton's today, Saturday, for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kenney and son of New Britain, who have been at Mrs. Geo. Kenney's for two weeks, have gone home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. MacGrane, Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Gudd, in company with Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Kimball of Norwich, left Wednesday on a motor trip to Vermont.

Miss Jennie Copeland of Mansfield, Mass., is the guest of the Misses Anna and Grace Bates.

Chauncey P. Fenton and son John of Boston are spending Sunday at L. J. Hammond's.

Mr. and Mrs. Lilly and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler of Springfield have been at the Misses Johnson's for the week.

W. S. Kelsey and family of Allston, Mass., arrived Wednesday at their summer home.

Mrs. J. C. Fenton and her sister, Miss May A. Perkins, entertained the ladies society of St. Paul's church Thursday afternoon.

Miss Neal of Brooklyn, N. Y., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. K. Leffingwell.

Mr.